FOREWORD

Each succeeding year finds the Dahlia expanding its field of usefulness. Today no garden is complete unless dahlias are included. From the huge shaggy monster, to the tiniest delicate botanical dahlia, you may now obtain almost any size type or color. Dahlias being a hobby with us, and not a means of livelihood we grow only the ones which we believe are worthwhile. Our seedlings are, we believe, as good or better than existing varieties of similar type and color. Before a seedling of ours is given the name RIALSIDE, it must either win a certificate at an official Trial Garden, or win a Major award at a State or National Show. Hence our slogan: "If It's Tagged Rialside It's a Winner."

We present for 1938

Rialside King

Informal decorative. Picric yellow base, blending to jasper pink at ends of petals. Grows normally 9 to 11 inches, with slight disbudding. Natural grower. Good bloomer. Great stem. Height 4ft. 6ins. Best Seedling in Show. Lawrence 1936. Best Seedling of New England origin. Boston 1937. Best Informal Decorative Seedling. Boston 1937. American Home Achievement Medal. Boston 1937.
Roots $10 net Plants $5.00

Monarch of the East

Almys 1938. Dec. to I.D. We have not been privileged to grow this dahlia. But hearing of its greatness from reliable sources we didn't want to miss it. Originators description. Color, a warm gold with apricot and orange buff suffusion, with slight coppery red on reverse. Grand stem. Height 5ft. A giant bloom. Plants only $7.50.

Cornell

Burgard 1938. Informal Dec. A bi-color of Garnet and white. Blooms average 8 to 9 inches. This attracted our attention at the New York Show. Fine stem. Bush 5 to 6 ft. Very spectacular.

Roots $10.00

Plants $5.00

DELIVERY: Tubers shipped postpaid, at the proper planting time, unless otherwise requested. We do not guarantee tubers shipped before April 1st. If tubers are not to be planted upon arrival, they should be placed in moist sand, to prevent eyes from drying out.

We urge all dahlia growers to join, The Dahlia Society of New England, and The American Dahlia Society.
